Broder Law Group P.C. opens offices in Turnersville and Moorestown

MOORESTOWN, N.J. -- Attorney Seth N. Broder has launched Broder Law Group, P.C., with offices in Moorestown and Turnersville, New Jersey. Broder, a Moorestown resident, has practiced law for 10 years.

Broder handles residential and commercial real estate matters, estate planning and business concerns, including commercial litigation. He also specializes in legal issues related to special education, such as advocacy for children with disabilities and trusts and guardianships to ensure their continued care.

Broder's community service includes membership on the Moorestown (N.J.) Township Council, and on the boards of directors for The Arc of Gloucester County, Healing the Children-Greater Philadelphia Area Chapter, and the Adam Taliaferro Foundation. He also hosts The Arc Report, a television program devoted to issues facing people with developmental and other disabilities, and speaks to various parent groups about those concerns.

He founded the Broder Law Group, P.C., with the goal of providing each client with individual attention and specialized expertise. Reach the Turnersville office (901 Route 168, Suite 110) at 856-227-5100 and the Moorestown office (110 Marter Ave., Suite 409) at 856-234-8768.
